

Criteria		Performance			Weight	Comments
1	Use search features and Website links to locate and read at least 2 editorial reviews and 4 reader reviews.	The required reviews were independently located and read. 10 9	The required reviews were located with assistance. All of them were read. 8 7 6	The required reviews were located with assistance. Not all of them were read. 5 4 3 2 1 0	1
2	Use these model texts to learn about book reviews. Your answers to questions on the Editorial and Customer Reviews page should show that you have thought about important components of a review.	Four or more features of the genre have been identified. 10 9	At least three features of the genre have been identified. 8 7 6	Less than three features of the genre have been identified. 5 4 3 2 1 0	1
3	Use Word to plan and write a book review in which you describe and evaluate a book of your choice. Base your review on professional models that you have read.	The review is thorough and polished. Many of the components found in professional reviews are included in the text. A perceptive overview of the book provides necessary information for the viewer. The reviewer's judgment about the book's critical elements is well supported. 10 9	The review is well written and includes some recognizable features of the genre. The overview does not provide the information needed by the reader, and / or opinions about the success of the author's work are stated with little or no evidence. 8 7 6	The review is poorly written. It shows little understanding of the genre and does not provide an adequate overview or criticism of the book. 5 4 3 2 1 0	4
4	Preview your review to make sure that there are no errors in the text.	The published text includes no errors. 10 9	Few errors remain in the text. 8 7 6	Several errors remain in the text. 5 4 3 2 1 0	1
5	Communicate appropriately for the intended audience. Match the tone and content of your writing to that of model reviews.	The review uses polite, respectful language. The tone and content of the writing matches that of the model reviews. 10 9	The review uses polite, respectful language. The tone or content, however, does not match that of model reviews. 8 7 6	Inappropriate language needed to be removed from the review. The tone and content does not match that of model reviews. 5 4 3 2 1 0	1
6	Follow the site's guidelines to publish your review online.	The review is published successfully. Site guidelines and procedures were followed independently and carefully. 10 9	The review was published. Site guidelines and procedures were followed with assistance. 8 7 6	The review was not published online or guidance was required to complete every step of the publication process. 5 4 3 2 1 0	3
7	Use other site features to participate in literature forums, contribute feedback, or ask questions.	The student participated in at least two additional site activities. 10 9	The student participated in one additional site activity. 8 7 6	The student did not participate in any additional site activity. 5 4 3 2 1 0	1

Technology Literacy Assessment:

/ 100%